

Ray Turcotte did a great job with us, we're very happy. Not only was his service great, ie, always getting back to us right away, helping to negotiate the offer (on the night before Thanksgiving of all times!), even showing up early on a Sunday morning at our future house again so Caitlin's mother could see it before we put an offer in, but it was obvious twenty minutes after meeting him how incredibly knowledgeable he is. He noticed things that neither of us would have ever seen.

I admit I always thought of realtors, especially in the buying process, as people who unlock the door, let you look around and then take you to the next house. I thought they only got involved once an offer was made, but we both realized that's not the case at all, at least not with this company. Ray, Andy, Lindsey and everyone else were an integral part every step along the way. We gained a lot of knowledge that has helped us since we purchased our house, and throughout the whole process we never felt like we were in the dark about anything at all.

We were completely confident that Andy and Ray's experience would guide us to a perfect decision, and we were right. I one hundred percent recommend Andy Saviolakis to anyone looking to buy or sell a house, I can't imagine using anyone else. If you're looking to buy or sell, you want a knowledgeable, experienced and trustworthy realtor in your corner, and that's exactly what you'll get with Andy.

Andy, Ray, and everyone else on your staff, thank you very much for all of your hard work and dedication, and making the whole experience an enjoyable one!
